What a Clayaville Minister Did.

After the death of the late Dr. Alexan der McCarrell, which occurred on the 18th of April, a small package was found among his private possessions, labelled "the Lord's money." It amounted to eighteen dollars, and has been forwarded by his son, Rev. Wm. A. McCarrel, of Shippensburg, Pa., to the Board of Foreign Missions. This departed minister and friend of missions, though having lived through all his ministry upon a small salary, had the fixed habit of devoting one-tenth of his income to religious purposes. To accomplish this, while he liberally educated four sons and a daughter, must have required great tact and careful mannagement. But that he was able to provide for his a mily so well on nine-tenths, illustrates the icct that giving to the Lord doth not impoverish.—The Foreign Musicionary. der McCarrell, which occurred on the 18th

Last Saturday morning a ne case of drowning occurred at West Alex ander, under the following circumstances Mrs. Scott, a music teacher, left her three little children at home while she went to Claysville for the purpose of giving music and the house, but about noon, one of them, Johnny, six years of age, was tempted out of the yard by another lad and into the yard of a neighbor across the street. In a few minutes terrific shrieks were heard, and a moment later the cry "Johnny fell in the well." Before a motion could be made, however, looking to his rescue, the little child was bayond help. Grab hooks were procured, and in a short time his body was hooked out of the water. It was found that in falling the base of his skull had been fractured, and there were also other dangerous bruises on his body.

A gentleman was at once dispatched for the mother, who fainted at the announcement and has ever since been in a critical condition, not having been able to be removed to West Alexander until yesterday.

The Wheeling Musical Excursion

Steubenville He. ald, Saturday.

The fine steamboat, St. Lawrence, cam n from Wheeling at 7 o'clock last night with the Lyric Opera Company, Kramer's with the Lyric Opers Company, Kramer's orchestra and about two hundred and fifty excursionists, making in all a party of the hundred ladies and gentlemen on board, all of them in their best clothes and best spirits. At eight o'clock Garrett's Hall was full clear back to the windows with a gay audience of Wheeling and Steubenville people, to hear the first rendition of the "Bells of Corneville" by the Lyrics. We have not space to spread, nor would we closely criticise amateurs if we had. The play was put upon our small stage in good style as to costumes and scenery. The orchestra was Kramer's, but nevertheless a little too loud for new voices, and the chory ruses in overy instance were fine, the unibers giving confidence to the signers and bracing them up, as it were. Of the individuals there is much to be said in praise. The Serpolette of Mrs. Hornbrook was as pretty as a a picture, and her singing and acting were both good. Of the Germaine of Mrs. Eoff the same may be said. Mrs Eoff has a full, rich voice which she used to great advantage. The Gertrude of Miss Annie Hess was a bright little part most brightly taken. Mr. Arkle as Grenicheux displayed an exceedingly fine tenor voice, but he did not know his lines in the recitative, which detracted from the general effect.

Mr. Lucas's Honri was well sung and with the Lyric Opera Company, Kramer's orchestra and about two hundred and fifty from the general effect.

Mr. Lucas's Henri was well sung and Air. Lucas's Henri was well sung and well played. He is at home on the boards. The Gaspard of Mr. Hall and the Bailli of Mr. Howell were fairly taken but will improve with practice. Mr. Sarcopf as Notury was the best actor on the stage. He did not sing. There were many weak points in the opera, but there were so many yery strong ones, and the ceneral many very strong ones, and the general effect was so pleasing that we do not care to find fault. There was a nervousness in the acting which disappeared in the sing-ing, and there was considerable forgetful-ness of parts, but there are excuses for all this and with a little more practice the ness of parts, but there are excuses for all this and with a little more practice the Lyric Opera Company may compete with the professionals. The excursion returned immediately siter the entertainment and got home safely after an exceedingly pleasant trip, and Steubenville stands waiting to welcome them again.

Steubenville applauded the play as enthusiastically as Wheeling did. Nothing mean about us. It was lovely, but:
You may fouch and may change it as much as you will,
But the air of the amateur cliuge round it still.

The Gazette says: The Lyric Opera Company's "Chimee of Normandy" was decidedly the best smateur entertainment given in Steubenville for many days, the singers being in good voice, and the house large and appreciative. We thoroughly endorse them, and will add that Mrs. Eoff, with her full rich voice and pleasent way, was decidedly the favorite, and took the house by storm, while the acting, as well as house by storm, while the acting, as well as singing, of Mrs. Hornbrook will rank with singing, of Mrs. Hornbrook will rank with many professionals of excellent reputa-tion, and we cannot pass by the fine work of the chorus which was really one of the strongest points in the troups. We will always be glad to welcome the Lyrica if they keep up the standard they have set in their presentation of "Pinalore" and the "Ohimes of Normandy" in Steubenville.

Washington, May 28.—It is reported that the President intends next Monday to suspend the Treasury officials who have been connected with the misdeeds of the Custodian's office. Inquiries as to the truth of the report at the White House and from high officials in the Treasury were responded to by a declination to either affirm or deny the report. It is said that President Garfield learned of the that President Garfield learned of the waste of public money and wrong doing in the Custodian's office while serving in the last Congress, and that he has insisted upon an investigation, and that he proposes to suspend officials alleged to be in the ring, in order to give the investigation committee a free field to carry on their labors. That President and Secretary Windom having been so entirely occupied with other important questions is said to be the reason for not having earlier ordered the suspension of these Treasury officials.

How to becure Health.

How to Secure Health.

It seems strange that anyone will suffer from the many derangements brought on by an impure condition of the blood, when Scovill's Sarsayarilla and Stillingia, or Blood and Liver Syrup will restore perfect health to the physical organization. It is indeed a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and has proven itself to be the best blood purifier ever discovered, effectually curing scrofula, syphilith disorders, weakness of the kidneys, erysiplias, malaria, all nervous disorders and debility, bilious complaints and all diseases indicating an impure condition of the blood, liver, kidneys, stomach, skin, etc. It corrects indigestion. A single bottle will prove to you its merits as a health renewer, for it acts like a charm, especially when the complaint is of an exhaustive nature, having a tendency to lessen the natural vigor of the brain and nervous system. FOR SALE.

Rescued from Death.

The following statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to loose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the Gity Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred collars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. William Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them; when to my surprise and gratification I commenced. mh26 Rev. Chalfant's beaufful home in Use orbet or sale. Five lots, beaufful lawn, or enhouse shrubbery, good outspillings. Hours estimately good outspillings. Hours estimately for rouns, pleant and course. able, but I got a bottle to satisfy them; when to my surprise and gratification I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have for the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one indicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that Consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles, and can positively say that it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold by druggists.
